Israeli superstar DAVID BROZA, guitar/vocals, is considered one of the world's most dynamic and vibrant performers. From his whirlwind fingerpicking to Flamenco percussion and rhythms to a signature rock and roll sound, David Broza's charismatic and energetic performances have delighted audiences throughout the world.

Raised in Israel, Spain and England, Broza has performing worldwide since 1977, when his hit song "Yihye Tov" first hit the airwaves, promoting a message of peace. Broza is known for his commitment and dedication to several humanitarian projects, especially a resolution to Israeli-Palestinian conflict through dialogue, culture, music and tolerance.

Now, with a string of multi-platinum albums—in Hebrew, English and Spanish—he continues to hone his message.

Broza was awarded a Spanish Medal of Honor by the King of Spain, Juan Carlos I, for his longtime contribution to Israel-Spain relations and his promotion of tolerance. A passionate peace advocate, he has also been named a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador.

Broza garnered widespread acclaim for his 2013 album East Jerusalem West Jerusalem, produced by GRAMMY® Award-winner Steve Earle and Steve Greenberg, and recorded in its entirety in the Palestinian Sabreenm Studio in East Jerusalem.
